BROADCAST CLIPS
Wednesday, July 21, 2010

URL: http://www.criticalmention.com/report/10607x154807.htm

LOCAL:

Entry #1
WDSU News This Morning
WDSU (NBC) New Orleans, LA - a local group says there may be some gaps in the way the Environmental Protection Agency tests for air quality. The Louisiana bucket brigade says it's getting more odor and health complaints

Entry #2
CBS 7 Morning News
KOSA (CBS) Odessa, TX - The Environmental Protection Agency is preparing for a third round of hearings on the controversial gas drilling technique known as "hydraulic fracturing".

Entry #3
Fox Hunt
WFXB (Fox) Myrtle Beach, SC - What about termite control? Termite control is something you don't want to do on your own. It's not a do it yourself project. Give the professionals a call let them come in do a free termite inspection for you. And we can give you options for a termite treatments. Are the chemicals safe? All of our chemicals are registered by the EPA so there safe for pets, safe for your children.

Entry #4
Action 4 News Sunrise
KGBT (CBS) Harlingen, TX - When it comes to air quality the standards are set to change

Entry #5
WETM Morning News on WIVT
WIVT (ABC) Binghamton, NY - The Environmental Protection Agency is preparing for a third round of hearings on the controversial gas drilling technique known as "hydraulic fracturing".

Entry #6
18 News Today
WETM (NBC) Elmira, NY - The Environmental Protection Agency is preparing for a third round of hearings on the controversial gas drilling technique known as "hydraulic fracturing".

Entry #7
WETM Morning News on WIVT
WIVT (ABC) Binghamton, NY - The US Environmental Protection Agency is taking a new look at a controversial natural gas drilling technique.

Entry #8
18 News Today
WETM (NBC) Elmira, NY - The US Environmental Protection Agency is taking a new look at a controversial natural gas drilling technique.

Entry #9
59 News at 6a
WVNS (CBS) Bluefield, WV – Capitol is focusing on to promote a safe working environment inside the mines -- and she urges both republicans and democrats to support the bill. The National Mining Association Announced Tuesday it is suing the US Environmental Protection Agency and the US Army Corps of Engineers

Entry #10
WDSU News Early This Morning
WDSU (NBC) New Orleans, LA - A local group says there may be some gaps in the way the Environmental Protection Agency tests for air quality.

Entry #11
Stormcenter 17 Daybreak
WAND (NBC)Champaign, IL - Once we confirmed a fish kill and there was an odor out there...so we called for the EPA to help us investigate...and also DNR helped us out ' shortly after arriving on scene...the EPA was certain this is something they've seen before. They tested the water and what they found out was it was a low oxygen concentration in the water.

Entry #12
Good Morning
WFMY (CBS) Greensboro, NC – Environmental Protection Agency says radon causes thousands of deaths each year

Entry #13
18 News Today
WETM (NBC) Elmira, NY - The US Environmental Protection Agency is taking a new look at natural gas drilling and water issues.

Entry #14
WETM Morning News on WIVT
WIVT (ABC) Binghamton, NY – The US Environmental Protection Agency is taking a new look at natural gas

Entry #15
18 News Today
WETM (NBC) Elmira, NY – The US Environmental Protection Agency is taking a new look at a controversial natural gas drilling technique. The government tells BP to to continue its pressure tests on the containment cap holding back that massive oil leak in the Gulf of Mexico.

Entry #16
Action 4 News Sunrise at 5am
KGBT (CBS) Harlingen, TX - Air quality the lower Rio Grande valley in the clear when it comes to passing air quality standards set by the Environmental Protection Agency.... in a meeting at the Texas Commission on environmental quality base in Harlingen

Entry #17
NBC 10 News Sunrise at 5:30am
WJAR (NBC) Providence, RI - The complaint from the federal EPA, Environmental Protection Agency alleges unpermitted process water and storm water discharges from the company's concrete truck-washing and loading operations

Entry #18
13 News at 5a
WOWK (CBS) Charleston, WV - . The National Mining Association Announced Tuesday it is suing the US Environmental Protection Agency and the US Army Corps of Engineers

Entry #1

Play Media
Direct Link

WDSU News This Morning
WDSU (NBC)New Orleans, LA DMA: 51
Jul 21 2010 6:54AM CDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 50806
Est. Publicity Value: $383 (30 Seconds) $766 (Total) all the other details tomorrow morning. back to you. a local group says there may be some gaps in the way the environmental protection agency tests for air quality. the louisiana bucket brigade says it's getting more odor and health complaints ...despite reports of clear air quality. the review found the complaints came from areas without stationary monitors. the bucket brigade is now asking the e-p-a hire locals to help with sampling. "what needs to happen is they need to enhance their monitors and what we think is best is for them to hire some of these people out of work. why not hire a shrimper or a fisherman to take water samples and air samples. they are familiar with the equipment and know the environment. it makes a lot of senes." if you would like to report a health or odor complaint to the bucket brigade -- you can text 27-oil -- that's for folks in a 504 area code. you can also file a complaint online by going to our website ...wdsu

Entry #2

CBS 7 Morning News

Play Media
Direct Link

KOSA (CBS)Odessa, TX DMA: 155
Jul 21 2010 6:37AM CDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 13181
Est. Publicity Value: $138 (30 Seconds) $276 (Total) billion dollars for 10 permian basin fields in texas and new mexico.. including interests in two b-p operated gas processing plants. the permian basin properties produce about 15-thousand barrels of oil and gas liquids a day and about 80 million cubic feet of gas. in all.. the deal will amount to 7 billion dollars and is set to help pay the costs of the gulf oil spill. the midland owner of hector's pipe company is facing up to 10 years in prison after pleading guilty to illegally taking cash withdrawals. 55-year-old hector garcia ponce has admitted that over four years.. he would take money out of bank accounts just under 10- thousand dollars so they wouldn't be reported to the government. ponce also faces a maximum 250 thousand dollar fine when he is sentenced. and the environmental protection agency is preparing for a third round of hearings on the controversial gas drilling technique known as "hydraulic fracturing". the process is currently exempt from federal

Entry #3

Play Media
Direct Link

Fox Hunt
WFXB (Fox)Myrtle Beach, SC DMA: 104
Jul 21 2010 7:20AM EDT
Programming Type: Consumer still may have problems with things that crawl getting on the inside. that's right. it's not normally a sanitation issue. it's mother nature. and you could have ants, roaches, spiders, any of those things crawling in your home. give lane's a call so we can get rid of those. what about termite control? termite control is something you don't want to do on your own. it's not a do it yourself project. give the professionals a call let them come in do a free termite inspection for you. and we can give you options for a termite treatments. are the chemicals safe? all of our chemicals are registered by the epa so there safe for pets, safe for your children. so there are no worries. what about those warranty considerations. every job with lane's is one hundred percent guaranteed. so if you have a bug give us a call and we'll come back for free and take care of it. and as far as termite work goes you can give us a call and were going to solve your problem. so wheter it be on the inside or outside , got bugs get lane's

Entry #4

Action 4 News Sunrise

Play Media
Direct Link

KGBT (CBS)Harlingen, TX DMA: 87
Jul 21 2010 6:08AM CDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 12026
Est. Publicity Value: $123 (30 Seconds) $246 (Total)

a.m. sunday. police say she had left the butt wild sports bar... off expressway 83... when she ran over a man lying on the road. police say she did stop. - j i air quality test results are in ... and the lower rio grande valley is getting a good grade ... when it comes to air quality. but the standards are set to change... and could put us below passing. action 4's marcy martinez has the details. p air quality the lower rio grande valley in the clear when it comes to passing air quality standards set by the environmental protection agency.... in a meeting at the texas commission on environmental quality base in harlingen -- experts in the field explained the calculation of ozone design values and how cameron county measures way below the current standard...whic h is a good thing... but the epa's standard is up for review and could change in the next few months... if so, the new requirements could put the valley at risk for not making the cut and therefore would not be in compliance with air quality standards... according to the tceq -- most of the valley's damaging pollutants come from moving vehicles -- but federal standards on emissions have helped keep it under control... they remind residents here that the air if safe to breathe and the goal now is to keep it that way. in harlingen, marcy martinez action 4 news. t air quality if standards are not met... the epa could impose restrictions on economic growth and highway funding. - a tease 1a coming up this morning ... if standards

Entry #5

Play Media
Direct Link

WETM Morning News on WIVT
WIVT (ABC)Binghamton, NY DMA: 157
Jul 21 2010 6:50AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 1822
Est. Publicity Value: $25 (30 Seconds) $50 (Total)

++++ the u.s. environmental protection agency is taking a new look at natural gas drilling and water issues.this week the e-p-a is preparing for a third round of hearings on the controveial natural gas drilling technique called hydraulic fracturing, or "fracking." a wealth of natural gas is locked into the marcellus shale deep beneath pennsylvania, new york, west virginia and ohio. some geologists estimate it' s enough to sply the entire east coast for 50 years but there are fears fracking could pollute water above and below ground and deplete aquifers. the process is currently exempt from federal regulation. theheil and gas industry says it's been safe for many years.

Entry #6

18 News Today

Play Media
Direct Link

WETM (NBC)Elmira, NY DMA: 176
Jul 21 2010 6:50AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 13001
Est. Publicity Value: $358 (30 Seconds) $716 (Total)
++++ the u.s. environmental protection agency is taking a new look at natural gas drilng and water issues.this week the-p-a is preparing for a third round of hearings on the controversial natural gas drilling chnique called hydraulic fracturing, or "fracking." a wealth of natural gas is locked into the marcellus shale deep beneath pennsylvania, new york, west virginia and ohio. some geologists estimate it' s enough to supply the entire east coast for 50 years but there are fears fracking

Entry #7

Play Media
Direct Link

WETM Morning News on WIVT
WIVT (ABC)Binghamton, NY DMA: 157
Jul 21 2010 6:47AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 1822
Est. Publicity Value: $25 (30 Seconds) $50 (Total) one of the toughest forms of the disease to catch early. the experts studied the genes of ovarian cancer patients and found one in four had a specific gene mutation -- called k-r-a-s. only six percent of the general population have this variant. the gene was even more prevalent among women with a family history of the disease. +++++++++ ++++ time now is... coming up next on wetm 18 news today: the u.s. environmental protection agency is taking a new look at a controversial natural gas drilling technique. we'll explain up next ++++++++++ ++++ plus:new york's governor signs a new law aimed at keeping you fe from breathing in dangerous particle. the very latest when wetm 18 news today returns here on your wednesday morning. ++++++++++ ++++ ++++++++++ ++++ ++++++++++

Entry #8

18 News Today

Play Media
Direct Link

WETM (NBC)Elmira, NY DMA: 176
Jul 21 2010 6:47AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 13001
Est. Publicity Value: $358 (30 Seconds) $716 (Total) very rare -- less than one percent overall. they don't think i-v-f is the cause, rather the parents' genes may play a role. ++++++++++ ++++ researchers at yale university have ididtified enetic markers for ovarian cancer -- one of the toughest forms of the disease to catch early. the experts studied the genes of ovarian cancer patients and found one in four had a specific gene mutation -- calledk-r-a-s. only six percent of the general population have this variant. the gene was even more prevalent among women with a family history of the disease. ++++++++++ ++++ time now is... coming up next on wetm 18 news today: the u.s. environmental protection agency is taking a new look at a controversial natural gas dril technique. we'll explain up next ++++++++++ ++++ plus:new york's governor signs a new law aimed at keeping you safe from breathing in dangerous particle. the very latest when wetm 18 news today returns here on your wednesday morning. ++++++++++ ++++ ++++++++++ ++++

Entry #9

Play Media
Direct Link

59 News at 6a
WVNS (CBS)Bluefield, WV DMA: 156
Jul 21 2010 6:40AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 3830
Est. Publicity Value: $59 (30 Seconds) $118 (Total)
she revealed the "mine safety accountability and improved protection act" tuesday. (+++vo+++)it+ is a response to the democrats version of a mine safety bill that was released earlier this month. capito is focusing on + (reform+ to promote a safe t working envinment inside the mines -- and she urges both republicans and democrats to support the bill. the national ming association announced tuesday it is suing the u-s environmental protectionnm agency and the u -s army corps of engineers.. the suit says the two groups are allegedly obstructing the coal mine permitting processro in central appalachia. the suit claims ththat the permitting process jeopardizes thousands of jobs and the fuel for the nation's electric power. four supervisors entered guilty pleas in federal court for their roles in the aracoma mine fire. this is an update from the 59 news follow up file. (+++vo+++) ádonald hagy junior, terry shadd, edward ellis junior and

Entry #10

WDSU News Early This Morning

Play Media
Direct Link

WDSU (NBC)New Orleans, LA DMA: 51
Jul 21 2010 5:36AM CDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 28965
Est. Publicity Value: $196 (30 Seconds) $392 (Total) response. but we have yet to hear from him. now to saint bernard parish...more than 100 dead birds have been found in the marsh just this week. the state department of wildlife and fisheries says the birds were found on dry bread island. most of the birds were laughing gulls. a local group says there may be some gaps in the way the environmental protection agency tests for air quality. the louisiana bucket brigade says it's getting more odor and health complaints ...despite reports of clear air quality. the review found the complaints came from areas without stationary monitors. the bucket brigade is now asking the e-p-a hire locals to help with sampling. "what needs to happen is they need to enhance their monitors and what we think is best is for them to hire some of these people out of work. why not hire a shrimper or a fisherman to take water samples and air samples. they are familiar with the equipment and know the environment. it makes a lot of senes." if you would like to report a health or odor complaint to the

Entry #11

Play Media
Direct Link

Stormcenter 17 Daybreak
WAND (NBC)Champaign, IL DMA: 84
Jul 21 2010 5:33AM CDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 6569
Est. Publicity Value: $57 (30 Seconds) $114 (Total) blamed for another problem that's surfaced in champaign.. our noah newman shows what's causing a bit of a stink.. standup for lack of a better term it smells bad here at this pond in champaign...if you take a peek you'll see why it smells bad...fire department received word about this just after 12 oclock monday afternoon. ' once we confirmed a fish kill and there was an odor out there...so we called for the epa to help us investigate...and also dnr helped us out ' shortly after arriving on scene...the epa was certain this is something they've seen before. ' they tested the water and what they found out was it was a low oxygen concentration in the water...and this is caused by an environmental thing, when the humidity gets high and hot apparently it causes this to happen. the d-n-r says this happens during extended periods of hot weather...the heat dissolves the oxygen in the water...and the fish can't breathe. close- and again this just

Entry #12

Good Morning

Play Media
Direct Link

WFMY (CBS)Greensboro, NC DMA: 46
Jul 21 2010 6:23AM EDT
Programming Type: Newsmagazine
Est. Households/Views: 61881
Est. Publicity Value: $285 (30 Seconds) $570 (Total) environmental protection agency says radon causes thousands of deaths each year, and piedmont homes are at risk. the high point library is hosting a radon gas awareness program tonight. it starts at 6:30 at

Entry #13

Play Media
Direct Link

18 News Today
WETM (NBC)Elmira, NY DMA: 176
Jul 21 2010 6:19AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 13001
Est. Publicity Value: $358 (30 Seconds) $716 (Total)
++++ ++++++++++ ++++ the u.s. environmental protection agency is takiki a new look at natural gas drilling and water issues.this week the e-p-a is preparing for a third round of hearings on the controversial natural gas drilling technique called hydraulic fracturing, or "fracking." a wealth of natural gas is locked into the marcellus shale deep beneath pennsylvania, new york, west virginia and ohio. some geologists estimate it' s enough to supply the entire east coast for 50 years but there are fears fracking could pollute water above and below ground and deplete aquifers. the process is currently exempt from federal regulation. the oil and gas industry says it's been safe for many years. ++++++++++ ++++ this morning as teams fighting that massive oil spill continue to closely monitor

Entry #14

WETM Morning News on WIVT

Play Media
Direct Link

WIVT (ABC)Binghamton, NY DMA: 157
Jul 21 2010 6:18AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 1822
Est. Publicity Value: $25 (30 Seconds) $50 (Total)
++++ ++++++++++ ++++ the u.s. environmental protection agency is taking a new look at natural gas

Entry #15

Play Media
Direct Link

18 News Today
WETM (NBC)Elmira, NY DMA: 176
Jul 21 2010 6:17AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 13001
Est. Publicity Value: $358 (30 Seconds) $716 (Total)
++++ time now is... coming up next on wetm 18 news today: the u.s. environmental protection agency is taking a new look at a controversial natul gas drilling technique. we'll expla up nex ++++++++++ ++++ plus: the government tells bp to to contue its pressure tests on the containment cap holding back that massive oil leak in the gulf of mexico. we'll have an update on the situation when wetm 18 news today returns here on you wednesday morning. ++++++++++ ++++ tttttt

Play Media
Direct Link

KGBT (CBS)Harlingen, TX DMA: 87
Jul 21 2010 5:08AM CDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 3968
Est. Publicity Value: $55 (30 Seconds) $110 (Total) set to change... and could put us below passing. action 4's marcy martinez has the details. p air quality the lower rio grande valley in the clear when it comes to passing air quality standards set by the environmental protection agency.... in a meeting at the texas commission on environmental quality base in harlingen -- experts in the field explained the calculation of ozone design values and how cameron county measures way below the current standard...whic h is a good thing... but the epa's standard is up for review and could change in the next few months... if so, the new requirements could put the valley at risk for not making the cut and therefore would not be in compliance with air quality standards... according to the tceq -- most of the valley's damaging pollutants come from moving vehicles -- but federal standards on emissions have helped keep it under control... they remind residents here that the air if safe to breathe and the goal now is to keep it that way. in harlingen, marcy martinez action 4 news. t air quality if standards are not met... the epa could impose restrictions on economic growth and highway funding. - a tease 1a coming up this morning ... if standards

Entry #17

Play Media
Direct Link

NBC 10 News Sunrise at 5:30am
WJAR (NBC)Providence, RI DMA: 53
Jul 21 2010 5:37AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 36277
Est. Publicity Value: $316 (30 Seconds) $632 (Total) work that costs almost $170,000. this comes after numerous violations of the clean water act. the complaint from the federal epa, environmental protection agency alleges unpermitted process water and storm water discharges from the company's concrete truck-washing and loading operations. >>> it's 23 minutes before 6:00, wednesday morning, july 21st, let's check the winning lottery numbers.

Entry #18

13 News at 5a

Play Media
Direct Link

WOWK (CBS)Charleston, WV DMA: 63
Jul 21 2010 5:34AM EDT
Programming Type: News
Est. Households/Views: 1774
Est. Publicity Value: $46 (30 Seconds) $92 (Total) in mine safety news this morning... congresswoman shelly moore capito is introducing an + (alternate+ mine safety bill in response to the u-b mine disaster.she revealed the "mine safety accountability and improved protection act" -- after democrats released their version of a mine safety bill earlier this month. capito is focusing on + (reform+ to promote a safe working environment inside the mines -- and she urges both republicans and democrats to support the bill. the national ming association announced it is suing the u-s environmental protection agency and the u.s. army corps of engineers -- for allegedly obstructing the coal mine permitting process in central appalachia. the suit claims that the permitting process jeopardizes thousands of jobs -- and the fuel for the nation's electric power. there's been another incident in a string of crimes involving copper theft in huntington. a leased warehouse for the huntington area food bank is the latest target for copper thieves. the theft occurred sometime late sunday night or early monday morning.