Suggested Places for Administrator Jackson to Visit in Wyoming with Governor Dave Freudenthal --- suggested time (April)

- Powder River Basin Coal Mine (surface mining) in the Gillette area
    - Observe Mining Operation and Reclamation Program
- Coal Bed Methane (CBM) production in the Powder River Basin area
    - Fly-Over to view extent of production and associated land disturbance
- Observe Wind Development and Overall Wind Potential in the SW Powder River Basin area
    - Fly Over and possible site visit
- Salt Creek Facility, West of Powder River Basin near Casper, WY
    - Anadarko Enhanced Oil Field Recovery via CO2 Injection
- Exxon's Shute Creek Plant
    - Venting of CO2 and
- Pinedale Anticline, SW Wyoming
    - Ozone Issues with natural gas drilling
- Jona Field
    - large natural gas field in the Green River Basin in Sublette County, Wyoming
- Wyoming Range, SW Wyoming
    - Withdrawal of 1.2 million acres of the Wyoming Range from oil and gas drilling
- Visit Laramie River or Jim Bridger Power Station
    - Large coal-based facilities
- Arrangements with Wyoming individuals or groups the Administrator might be interesting in meeting (e.g., energy workers, environmental groups, business leaders, etc.)
- Stay at Governor's residence
- Press availability at the pleasure of the Administrator