

Proposed Climate Change Work Group

As Congress considers legislation to address climate change and as the Administrator considers regulation of GHGs under the Clean Air Act, the Clean Air Act Advisory Committee recommends that EPA establish a Climate Change Work Group under CAAAC as one means of obtaining input from a diverse range of stakeholders experienced in the operation of the Clean Air Act.