

Candace Groudine is Senior Policy and Regulatory Specialist for the Federal Highway Administration's Office of Civil Rights, where her program areas of concentration are Title II of the ADA and Section 504 as the latter pertains to State and local public agencies; EJ; and LEP. Prior to joining FHWA, Candace served as an administrator/lecturer in higher education for more than 20 years. Her J.D. is from Georgetown University Law Center, and she's a member of both the Maryland and DC Bars, but does not serve as an attorney for the federal government. Her Ph.D. is in Educational Administration and Policy Studies from SUNY Albany in New York, with a focus on public trust obligations in institutional strategic planning.