

Andrea Plewes is a civil rights program analyst/ contractor in the Federal Coordination and Compliance Section (FCS) of the Civil Rights Division of the U.S. Department of Justice. FCS is tasked with, among other things, enforcing Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Executive Order 13166. Andrea handles discrimination investigations, provides technical assistance, and is a member of the sections courts language access team. The majority of Andrea's work focuses on national origin discrimination against limited English proficient individuals.