

Luben Montoya is a Section Chief and Senior Advisor for Civil Rights Policy in the Civil Rights Division of the HHS Office for Civil Rights. His team provides expertise to HHS components and external entities with respect to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (race, color, national origin), Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (sex), the Hill-Burton Act (race, color, national origin, religion, and other grounds), and Executive Order 13166. One of Luben's primary areas of responsibility includes access by limited English proficient (LEP) persons to federally assisted and federally conducted programs. Luben also works on teams that educate health care providers, medical educators, student physicians, hospital administrators, and others on their obligations under civil rights laws prohibiting discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age and disability.
