

Margo McDaniel currently serves as a Technical Advisor in the Office of External Enforcement (OEE) of the U.S. Department of Labor's Civil Rights Center. OEE ensures equal opportunity in programs that receive financial assistance from the Department through the enforcement of various civil rights laws. As a Technical Advisor, Ms. McDaniel provides advice and technical assistance to OEE investigators regarding laws administered by OEE, including Section 188 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Ms. McDaniel joined the Civil Rights Center in 2005 as an OEE Investigative Team Leader. In that capacity, she led and conducted complex investigations of discrimination complaints filed against Department grant recipients and drafted numerous agency decisions.

Prior to working with the Civil Rights Center, Ms. McDaniel served as a Policy and Law Advisor in the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Labor-Management Standards (OLMS). In that position, she interpreted law and policy regarding the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959 (LMRDA), which regulates officer elections, finances, and other internal affairs of private sector labor organizations. Ms. McDaniel provided technical advice and guidance to OLMS investigators regarding the LMRDA and related laws.

Ms. McDaniel received her Law Degree from the Howard University School of Law and her Bachelor's Degree in Political Science from St. Mary's College of Maryland.
