

Phillies RED GOES GREEN

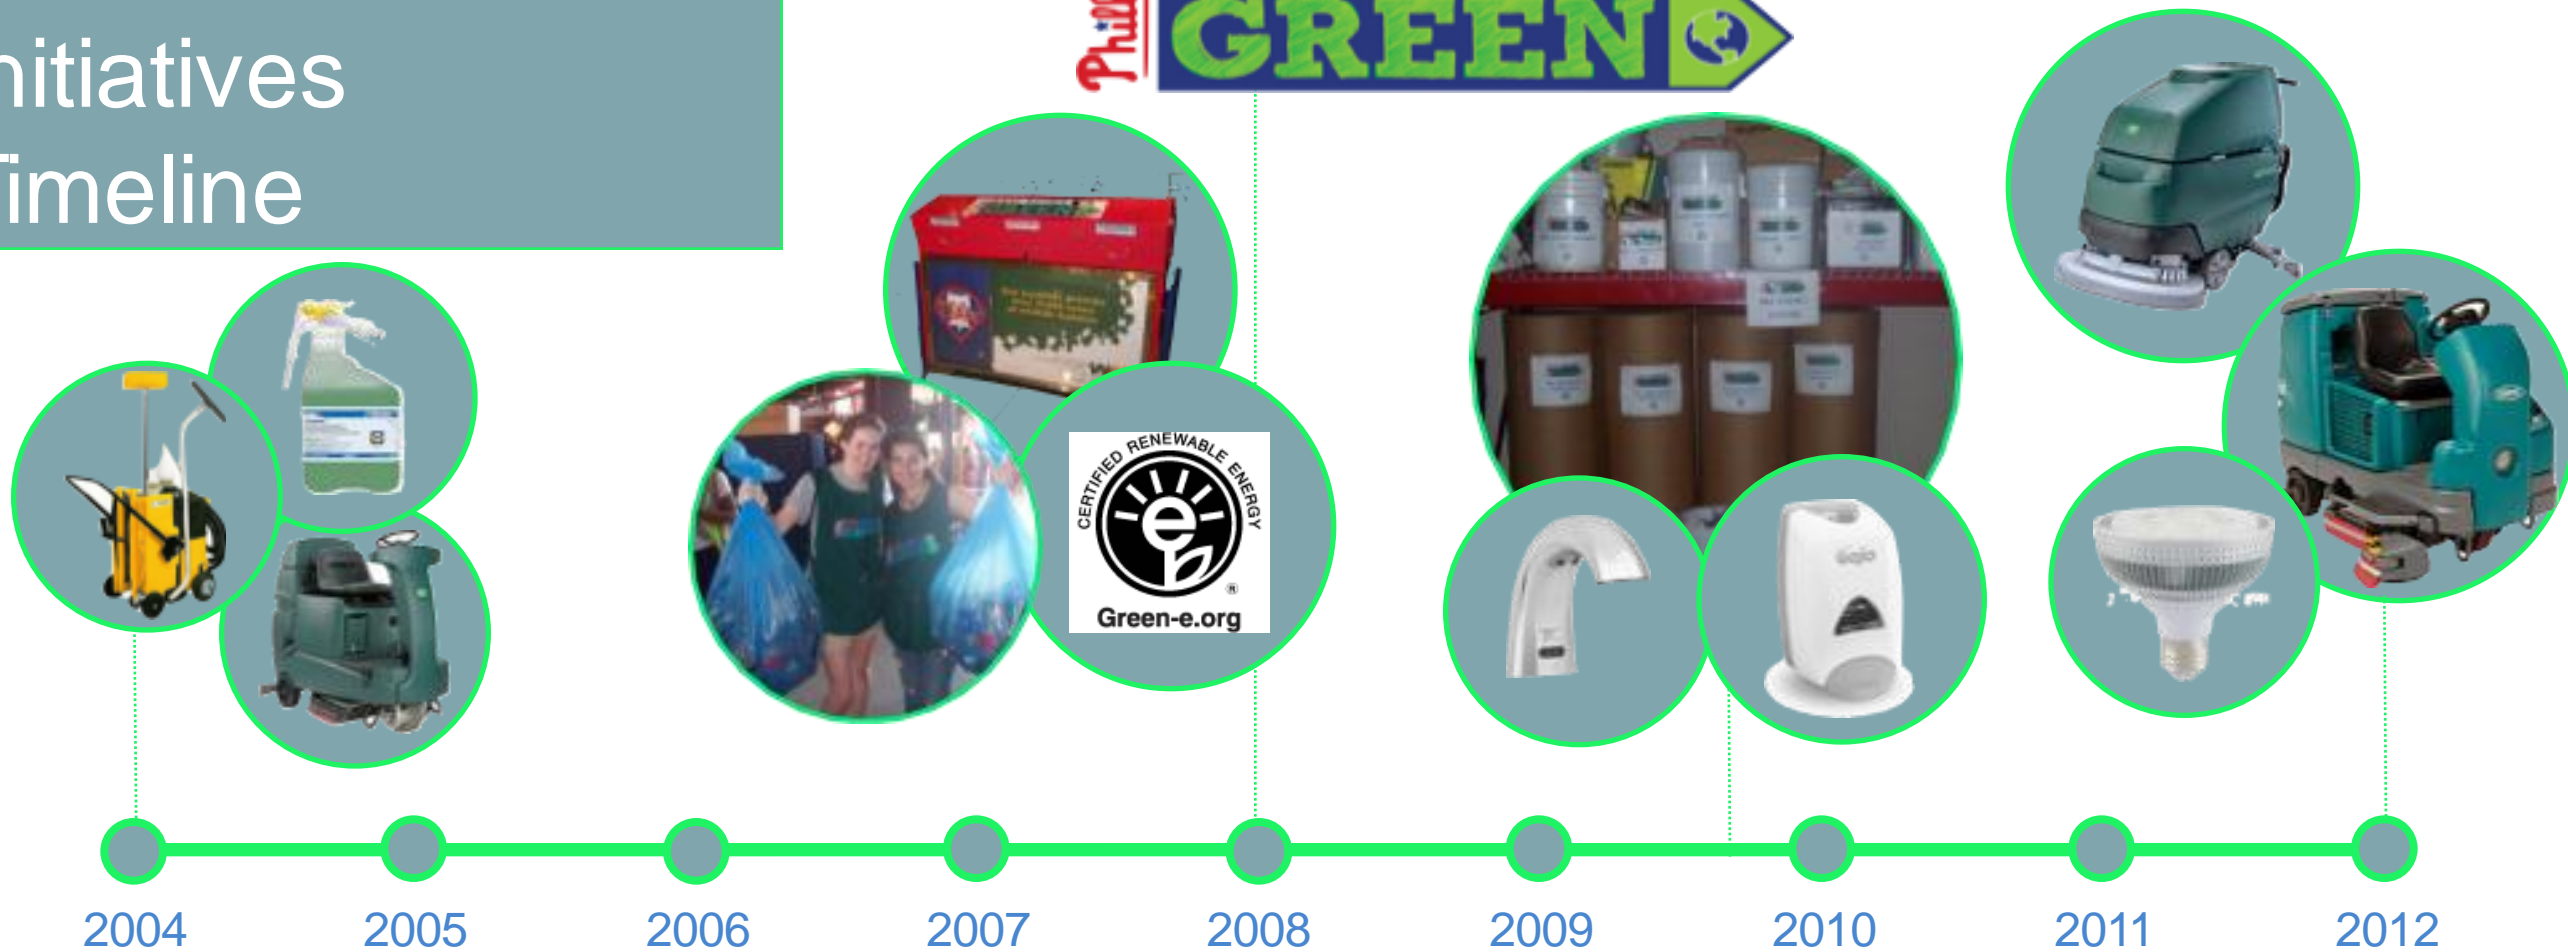

Phillies™

GLOBAL SPECTRUM
a subsidiary of Comcast SPECTACOR

ARAMARK

Environment Initiatives Timeline

2004 - 2007

- Citizens Bank Park Opens.
- Cardboard Recycling Efforts began.
- Environmentally friendly and preferred Cleaning chemicals are used.
- Promoted Healthier Restroom Cleaning process by utilizing the KaiVac Cleaning Machine.
- Utilized the RTD dispensing system during Daily Cleaning of the Ballpark.
- Introduced the Foam-activated Scrubbing Technology.

2008

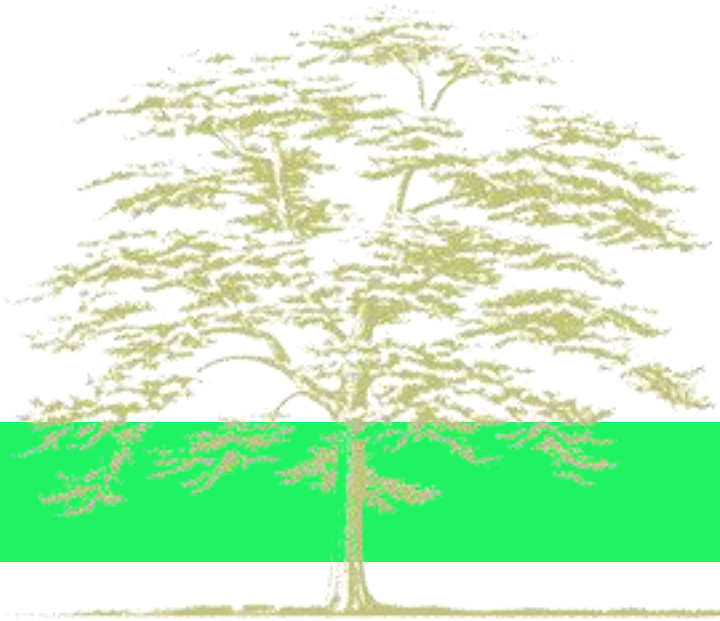

- Red Goes Green is Launched.
- Purchase of Certified Credits to offset Electricity Usage for a 12 month period or ~20,000,000 kWh
- Began Post-Event Commingled Recycling in seating bowl.
- Purchased (35) 3-Stream Recycling Containers to help promote recycling. Commingled Material throughout Ballpark.
- Initiated an In-Game Volunteer Effort to help promote Recycling the Red Goes Green initiatives as a whole.
- Introduced the Red Goes Green - Recycling Center; a place for Ballpark Personnel to deliver recycled material.

2009 - 2010

- Introduced Automatic Foam Soap Dispensing system in Suites and Administration Offices
- Introduced Manual Foam Soap Dispensers in the Public Restrooms.
- Product is Green Seal and EcoLogo.
- FSC Certified - Larger case size reduces packaging waste; meets EPS standards with a min. of 40% post-consumer recycled fiber & total min. of 50% reduced fiber.

2011 - 2012

- Introduced the Microfiber cleaning program.
- Introduced scrubbing machines which utilize an ionization process. Results are zero chemicals used during the cleaning process.
- LED Lamps will replace incandescent lamps.
- Original Lamps = 39W (10,000hr lamp life).
- LED Solution - 12W (50,000hr lamp life)

Phillies RED GOES GREEN

Announcing "Red Goes Green"

Outreach efforts...

...Employee Engagement

Earth Day Cleanup

"Red Goes Green" Cups and Mugs

Recycled Shirts

Outreach efforts...

...Player Engagement

Home Run for Trees

“Red Goes Green”
Day at CBP

Outreach efforts...

...Phan Engagement

Phil the Can

Tree Giveaway

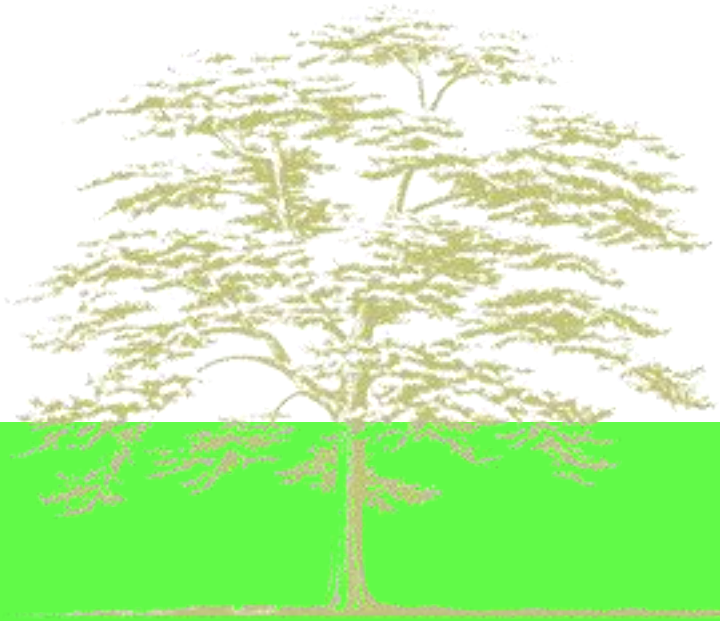

"Red Goes Green" Team

eCycle Event

Phillies RED GOES GREEN

Phillies™

GLOBAL SPECTRUM
a subsidiary of Comcast SPECTRUM

ARAMARK

