

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG)— State Administered

Eligible Uses

Emergency Repairs, Construction/Capitalization, Technical Assistance, Funds to Match FEMA Grants

At a Glance	CDBG funds are generally used for long-term public needs involving housing, economic development and infrastructure. CDBG funds cannot duplicate funding from FEMA, the Small Business Administration, and USACE. CDBGs may be used to construct or rehabilitate public facilities such as water and sewer systems. CDBGs may be used to match FEMA grants.
Receivers	Municipalities via states
Eligible Activities	States must spend at least 70 percent of their funds for activities that principally benefit low- and moderate-income persons.
Cost Sharing	None
Application	HUD distributes funds to each state on the basis of a statutory formula that takes into account population, poverty, incidence of overcrowded housing, and age of housing. Neither HUD nor states distribute funds directly to citizens or private organizations; all funds (other than administrations and the technical assistance set-aside) are distributed by states to units of local government. Note that states administer the program and determine which local projects receive funding.

More Sources and Contact Information

Contact your local municipal or county officials or your local HUD field office
<http://portal.hud.gov/hudportal/HUD?src=/localoffices>.

CDBG Disaster Recovery Assistance

<https://www.hudexchange.info/programs/cdbg-dr/>

Community Development Block Grant—State Administered

<https://www.hudexchange.info/programs/cdbg-state/>