

Bruce Mintz, Senior Scientist, in EPA's National Exposure Research Laboratory

Systems Exposure Division

Mailing Address

mintz.bruce@epa.gov

Area of Expertise: Bruce Mintz has expertise in water-related human health toxicology, microbiology and health risk analyses, including sustainability and health impact analysis,

Select Publications:

Xue, J., V. Zartarian, B. Mintz, M. Weber, K. Bailey and A. Geller. Modeling Tribal Exposures to Methyl Mercury from Fish Consumption" Science of the Total Environment 533 (2015) 102-109.

View more research publications by Bruce Mintz.

Education:

- B.S., Biology, Old Dominion University, Norfolk, VA, 1981
- Various graduate-level courses in toxicology and public health

Professional Experience:

- Biologist, USEPA, ORD, NERL-SED, 2015-present
- Biologist, USEPA, ORD, NERL-HEASD, 2011-2015
- Assistant Laboratory Director for Water, USEPA, ORD, NERL, 1997-2011
- Supervisory Biologist, USEPA Office of Science and Technology, 1989-1997
- Biologist, USEPA Office of Drinking Water, 1985-1989
- Environmental Scientist, USEPA Office of Municipal Pollution Control, 1981-1985
- Student Trainee, USEPA Office of Water Program Operations, 1979-1981