

What are the key questions that staff should absolutely ensure the grantees have completed?

All of the questions we ask on the Property Profile Form are critically important. It is imperative that our grant recipients answer all the questions that pertain to their grant. The only questions a recipient should not answer are those that do not apply to their grant's grant type (e.g., a recipient of an assessment grant should not answer questions that ask about cleanup data).