

Acceptable Identity Source Documents*

Individuals appearing for enrollment are required to provide two forms of identity source documents in their original form. The primary identity source document must be an unexpired, federal or state government issued photo ID per federal requirements and is limited to the Primary Documents listed in the box below. Note that Foreign Nationals must have at least one of the documents listed in the Foreign Nationals section of the Primary Documents box. The second identity source document may be any of the documents within the Secondary Documents box, including the list of Primary Documents.

The identity source documents must be bound to the individual and must not be expired or canceled. If the two identity source documents bear different names, evidence of a formal name change must be provided. Also, any document bearing language indicating it may not be used for identity verification will be rejected.

Primary Documents (in their original form)

- Driver's license or an ID card issued by a state or possession of the United States provided it contains a photograph
- U.S. Passport or a U.S. Passport Card
- U.S. Military ID card
