MEMORANDUM

SUBJECT: Recusal Statement

FROM: Justin Schwab
Senior Legal Advisor

TO: Don Benton
Senior White House Advisor

Charles Munoz
White House Liaison

Jn J L 02/10/2017

This memorandum provides you with written notification of my obligation to recuse myself from participation personally and substantially in certain matters in which I have a financial interest, or a personal or business relationship.

As required by 18 U.S.C. § 208(a), I will not participate personally and substantially in any particular matter that has a direct and predictable effect on my financial interests or those of any other person whose interests are imputed to me unless I first obtain a written waiver, pursuant to § 208(b)(1), or qualify for a regulatory exemption, pursuant to § 208(b)(2). Because of the current level of my financial ownership, I am disqualified from participating personally and substantially in any particular matter that affects Microsoft as a specific party.

In addition, I understand I am obliged to recuse myself from certain matters in which I have a covered relationship under the federal impartiality regulations. I am prohibited from participating in any particular matter in which my former employer, Baker and Hostetler, is or represents a party. I understand that my recusal lasts for one year from the date that I left the firm, so this recusal will end on January 19, 2018.

I further understand that I have a covered relationship with any client for whom I provided legal services. I understand that there is no de minimis exception for the provision of such services and that the ethics rules address any "person" to whom such services were provided, which can include subsidiaries. I will personally monitor my recusal list and promptly recuse myself as appropriate. For federal ethics purposes, this recusal remains in effect for one year from the date that I last provide services to that client or unless I am first authorized by the Office of General Counsel/Ethics to participate, pursuant to 5 C.F.R. § 2635.502(d). But I understand that I am also subject to my own bar obligations.

Pursuant to my obligations under my bar rules, I recognize that I am obliged to protect the confidences of my former clients. I also understand that I cannot participate in any matter that is the same as or substantially related to the same specific party matter that I participated in personally and substantially while in private practice, unless my bar provides for and I first obtain informed consent and notify OGC/Ethics.

In consultation with OGC/Ethics, I will revise and update my recusal statement whenever warranted by changed circumstances, including changes in my financial interests, changes in my personal or business relationships, and/or when I change positions within EPA. In the event of any changes to my screening arrangement, I will provide a copy of the revised recusal statement to the appropriate supervisor, OGC/Ethics, and any principal subordinates.

I will provide a copy of this memorandum to my principal subordinates with a copy to Justina Fugh, Senior Counsel for Ethics.

cc: Justina Fugh, Senior Counsel for Ethics
