

Volunteer/Unpaid Internship Position with EPA Region I

Name of Project: Field Assistant for Water Quality Studies

Type of Position: 1 Unpaid College Student

Supervisor/Contact: Katrina Kipp

Location: Region I – Chelmsford, MA

Preferred College Major: Biology or environmental science or engineering

Preferred Year in College: Junior or Senior Background: physical/life scientist or engineer

Duties:

One college student volunteer to assist with water quality field sampling studies conducted on rivers and streams, lakes and coastal waters. Student will work with senior staff and partners to scope and plan studies, prepare equipment, conduct sampling, and help analyze data. Data will be used to support EPA and state water pollution control activities.

Additional skills: Skills with computer spreadsheets and word processing

Dates of Assignment: Approximately June 4 – August 17, 2018

Application Requirements: Supply proof of continuing enrollment, resume and cover letter with your available start date, and approximate hours/weeks you could work) to:

R1EPIntern@epa.gov with the subject line reflecting program of interest,
i.e.: Vol Intern Prog. - Field Assistant for Water Quality Studies