

Volunteer/Unpaid Internship Position with EPA Region I

Name of Project: Wetlands and Water Quality Branch

Type of Position: 1 Unpaid College Student

Supervisor/Contact: Jackie LeClair

Location: Region I – Boston, MA

Preferred College Major: Biology, Environmental Science

Preferred Year in College: N/A

Preferred Background: Biologist, Physical or Life Science

Duties:

Ideally, a biologist or similar physical or life science background to work on stream temperature data. Will also work with senior wetlands staff on evaluating tide gates and impacts on coastal marshes.

Dates of assignment: Summer 2018 (10 Wks. Beginning May/June – flexible dates)

Application Requirements: Supply proof of continuing enrollment, resume and cover letter with your available start date, and approximate hours/weeks you could work) to:

R1EPAintern@epa.gov with the subject line reflecting program of interest,

i.e.: Vol Intern Prog. - Wetlands and Water Quality Branch