

Steven A. Rock, Environmental Engineer in EPA's National Risk Management Research Laboratory

Water Systems Division

Mailing Address

rock.steven@epa.gov

Areas of Expertise:

- Phytotechnologies- phytoremediation and evapotranspiration landfill covers
- Urban agriculture in terms of plant uptake of soil contaminants and dust exposure.
- Food waste reduction through conservation and food recovery programs, beneficial reuse of organics via animal feeding, composting, and anaerobic digestion.
- Technology transfer, including organizing and teaching workshops, and providing technical support and assistance to regions and states.

Education:

- M.S., University of Cincinnati, College of Engineering, Cincinnati, OH; Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering, 1993
- B.A., The Evergreen State College, Olympia, Washington; Energy Systems, 1982

- University of Denver, Denver, Colorado; Political Economics, 1979

Professional Experience:

Workgroup and Project Leads

- Assessed and awarded grants for the Superfund Innovative Technology Evaluation program applicants
- Co-chaired the Remediation Technology Development Forum on Phytotechnologies on soil clean-up, groundwater plume control, and evapotranspiration covers
- Managed Alternative Cover Assessment Program (ACAP)

Committees and Affiliations

- Associate Editor of the International Journal of Phytoremediation
- Founding member and treasurer of the International Phytotechnology Society
- Board Member for Hazardous Substance Research Centers at Kansas State University and Purdue University
- Review Board for Integrated Petroleum Environmental Consortium (IPEC) based at Oklahoma State University, University of Arkansas, and the University of Tulsa.

Awards and Honors

- EPA ORD Bronze Medals for Commendable Service, 2015
- CMC Difference Makers, 2015
- CCTST Community Health Advocate Award, 2014
- Office of Research and Development Communication Award, 2008
- NRMRL Science Integration Award, 2007
- EPA Scientific and Technological Achievement Award (STAA) Level III and Honorable Mention, 2005
- EPA ORD Bronze Medals for Commendable Service, 1999, 2000, 2001
