

News Release

For Immediate Release - July 08, 2013

WORLDWIDE ERC® AWARDS CRP® DESIGNATION TO: WILLIAM E. WIGGINS JR.

Worldwide ERC®, the workforce mobility association comprised of individuals concerned with domestic and international employee mobility, recently announced that William E. Wiggins Jr., Working Capital Fund Activity Manager, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency of Cincinnati, Ohio has earned the Certified Relocation Professional (CRP®) designation after successfully passing the CRP® exam held on May 15, 2013 in San Diego, California.

The exam process was administered by independent testing consultant and proctor, Castle Worldwide, and the content was developed with the guidance and expertise of the 11 members of the 2012-2013 Worldwide ERC® CRP® Certification Review Board. "Preparing for, taking and successfully completing the CRP® exam is a rigorous endeavor. It demonstrates not only a solid command of very complex subject matter, but dedication to one's professional development and the employee mobility industry overall," noted CRP® Certification Review Board Chairman Steven M. John, CRP, GMS, RELO Direct®, Inc. "We congratulate the 218 members who now have the honor of being able to demonstrate that expertise and commitment through having earned their CRP® designation."

In addition to a session held in conjunction with the Worldwide ERC® 2013 National Relocation Conference in San Diego, CA and co-hosted with the Southern California Relocation Council, the exam was conducted at 13 other site locations, hosted by Worldwide ERC®-recognized Regional Relocation Groups. Sites included: Charlotte, NC (Charlotte Metro Area Relocation Council); Chicago, IL (Corporate Relocation Council of Chicago); Cleveland, OH (Northeast Ohio Relocation Roundtable); Dallas, TX (North Texas Relocation Professionals & Texas Relocation Network); Denver, CO (Rocky Mountain Relocation Council); Detroit, MI (Detroit Regional Relocation Council); Houston, TX (Houston Relocation Professionals); Pittsburgh, PA (Greater Pittsburgh Relocation Council); Roseland, NJ (New Jersey Relocation Council); Salt Lake City, UT (Inter-mountain Relocation Council); Scottsdale, AZ (Arizona Relocation Alliance); Seattle, WA (Pacific Northwest Relocation Council), and Washington, DC (Greater Washington Employee Relocation Council). Graebel Relocation Services Worldwide also sponsored a closed site in Atlanta, GA.

The CRP® program was introduced in 1990 to formally recognize relocation professionals' knowledge of the U.S. domestic workforce mobility process. There are currently over 3,800 Worldwide ERC® members who hold the CRP® designation. CRP®s retain their designations by maintaining membership in the association and earning 30 recertification credit hours within each three-year period following their initial certification, ensuring they remain current on evolving industry trends.

A complete list of the 2013 CRP® recipients is available at: <http://www.worldwideerc.org/Education/CRP/Pages/crp-directories.aspx> and will be printed in the October issue of the association's monthly magazine, Mobility. Additional information on the CRP® program is available on the Worldwide ERC® web site at: <http://www.worldwideerc.org/Education/CRP/Pages/crp-designation-center.aspx>.