

What Lead Contamination Means for the Big River

Soil and sediment may contain lead.

Lead in the Big River impacts fish, crayfish, and endangered mussels.

A fish advisory is in effect for the Big River.

Without action, contamination will continue moving down the river, impacting the Meramec and Mississippi.