

United Indian Health Services, Inc.
Potawot Health Village Project

Presented by:
Eric Johnson & Paula "Pimm" Allen

Health of the Environment = Health of the People

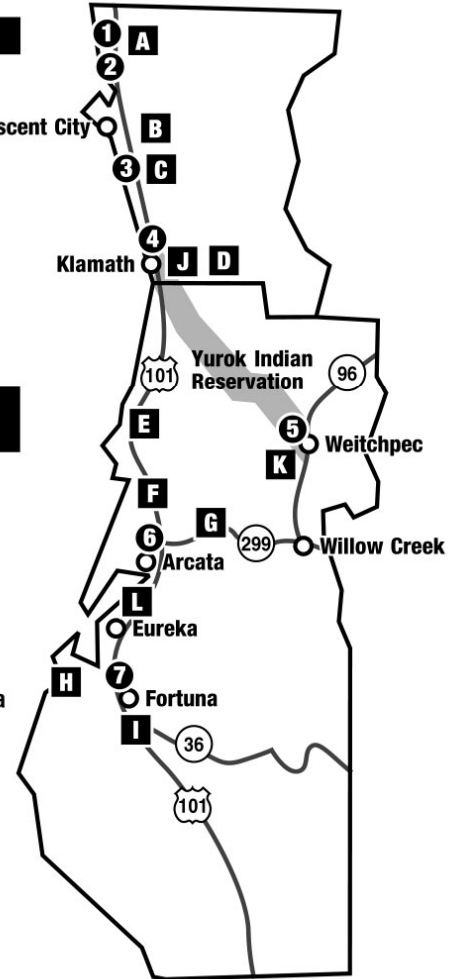

United Indian Health Services, Inc. Service Area Humboldt & Del Norte Counties

UIHS Facilities

- ① Howonquet Health Clinic
- ② Senior Nutrition Site Crescent City
- ③ Elk Valley Office
- ④ Klamath Health Clinic
- ⑤ Weitchpec Health Clinic
- ⑥ Potawot Health Village
- ⑦ Fortuna Health Clinic

UIHS Affiliated Tribal Governments

- A Smith River Rancheria
- B Tolowa Nation
- C Elk Valley Rancheria
- D Resighini Rancheria
- E Big Lagoon Rancheria
- F Cher-ae Trinidad Rancheria
- G Blue Lake Rancheria
- H Table Bluff Reservation
- I Rohnerville Rancheria
- J Yurok Klamath Office
- K Yurok Weitchpec Office
- L Yurok Eureka Office

Historical Indian Village Sites near Potawot Health Village

Village A: Tachenkalchwheten
" Fern Roots"

Village B: Klokno-Sesko-Ten
"Sturgeon"

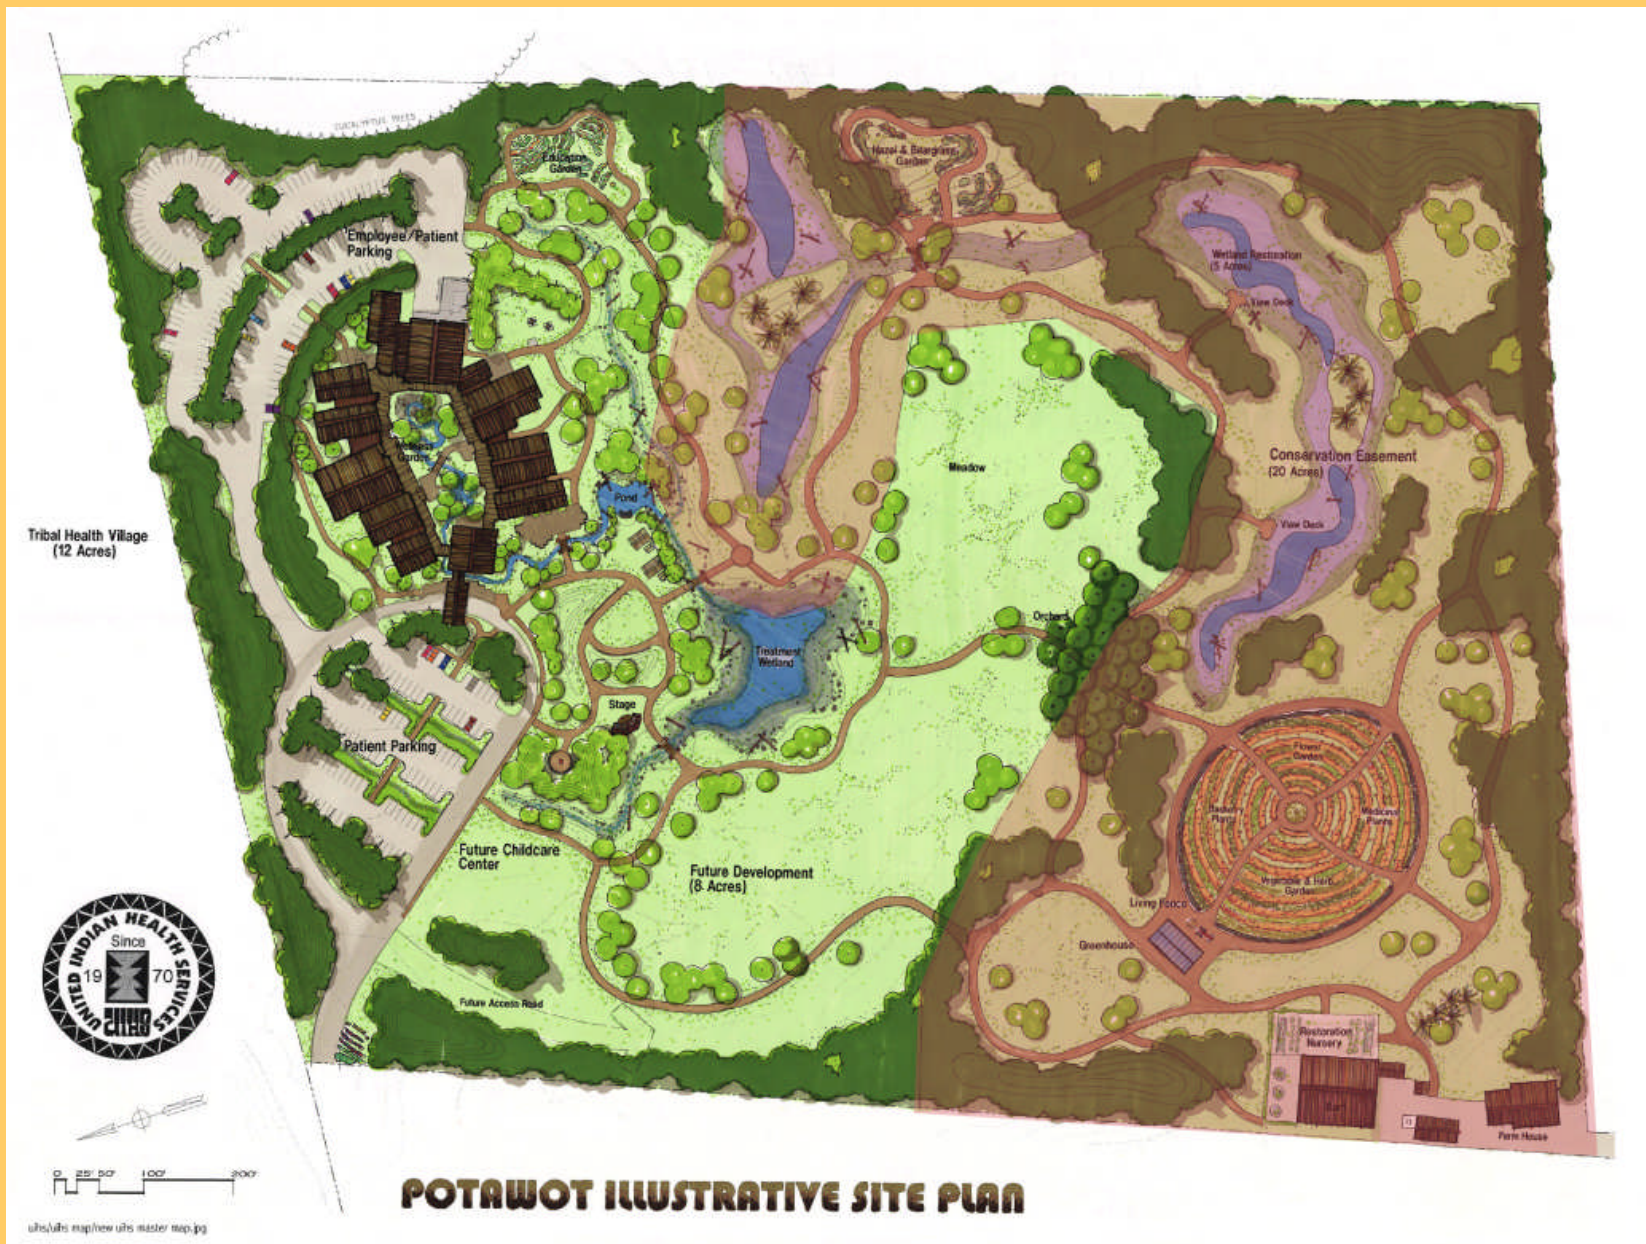

Village C: Knlokai-Kemeklok
"They grow like wild oats."

Village D: Tidil'-Tin
"Smooth river to catch salmon in."

 Potawot "Mad River"
1854-1862

 Potawot "Mad River"
1995-1997

Potawot Health Village Conceptual Map

Ku'wah-dah-wilth
(Comes Back to Life)
Restoration Area

Map of Roof and Parking Lot Stormwater Flow into Treatment Pond

PESTICIDES...

...WHAT BASKETWEAVERS SHOULD KNOW

Be Native, Be Responsible Respect the Earth

"In the beginning, we made an agreement with the Creator...
We still have this responsibility to the Earth."

- UIHS Summer Camp

UIHS

Reduce, Reuse, Recycle... Our future depends on it

