

Clean, Green & Healthy Tribal Schools

The Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Region 8 will host a Clean, Green and Healthy Tribal Schools Workshop on June 11, 2012 at the Colorado Convention Center in Denver in conjunction with the Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) Summer Institute. The workshop is designed for BIE Line Officers, tribal school administrators, facility managers, educators, health and safety coordinators, school health professionals, tribal environmental protection personnel, parents of school children, communities and EPA personnel.

The goal of the workshop is to provide information and tools for tribal school personnel to ensure that tribal schools are clean, green and healthy for themselves, school children and their community. Please register to attend. There is no cost to attend.
