Environmental Tip of the Month

Recycle Plastic Grocery Bags

Find out if your local curbside recycling program will accept plastic grocery bags. Drop off plastic grocery bags Type 2 and Type 4 at your local grocery store, if you cannot recycle them through your curbside program. Most grocery stores have recycling bins inside the store. Exclude any plastic bags that are dark in color or bags that have drawstrings. Plastic food packaging and plastic food wrap (Saran wrap) are also non-recyclable. Plastic bags should be clean and dry. (Average use of a plastic bag is 30 minutes, it has a petroleum base, and it stays in the environment for hundreds of years).

Certification and Training for Applicators of Restricted Use Pesticides (RUPs) in Indian Country

Because of the specific hazards associated with RUPs, the Federal Insecticide, Rodenticide and Fungicide Act (FIFRA) requires any person who applies RUPs to demonstrate competency and be certified for the types of intended pesticide applications. Competency is generally achieved by attending designated training or completing a specific self study program. Applicators then demonstrate competency by passing a certification exam. There are currently 3 options for ensuring that applicators in Indian country are trained and legally certified to apply RUPs (40 CFR Part 171. All certification and training plans must be approved by EPA. To inform tribes about these existing requirements and possible changes to EPA's certification regulations, the Region 9 Pesticides Office is making presentations at the 2010 RTOC meetings. For detailed information about the options above and questions on the Certification and Training Program, contact Katy Wilcoxon at 415-947-4205 or via e-mail at wilcoxen.katy@epa.gov.

Grants and Loans

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA)

Market-based Approaches to Reducing Greenhouse Gas Emissions through Energy Efficiency in Homes and Buildings

This notice announces the availability of funds and solicits proposals that advance national, regional, state, and local energy efficiency programming by utilizing market-based approaches to program design and delivery. The closing date and time for receipt of proposal submissions, regardless of mode of submission is September 2, 2010, 4:00 p.m., Eastern Daylight Savings Time. All hard copies of proposal packages should be sent to Hewan Tomlinson, EPA, Energy Star Program, 1200 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW MC 6202J, Washington, DC 20460: Phone: 202.343.9082 | Fax: 202.343.2200. Disadvantage Business Enterprise (DBE) Training for Tribal Grantees!

The National Partnership for Environmental Technology Education (PETE) has been contracted by EPA's Office of Small Business Programs to provide training to tribes, U.S. territories and insular areas in the new DBE rule. Contact Sarah Gross at 207-771-9020 x304 or email (sgrosse@maine.rr.com) regarding any conferences, meetings, or other venues appropriate for a DBE training session. National PETE provides the trainers and materials; they just need the venue. Alternatively, National PETE also offers the entire 2 to 2.5 day training at no cost, as long as it is guaranteed that at least 10 grantees will attend this training. For more information, go to www.petetribal.org.

Office of Pesticide Programs (OPP)

OPP is soliciting applications from eligible parties for an EPA cooperative agreement to build upon the success of the current clinical component of the National Strategies for Health Care Providers: Pesticide Initiative (HCI), (<http://www.epa.gov/oppfead1/safety/healthcare/healthcare.htm>) by expanding the reach of the initiative to additional healthcare practice sites and by continuing to train practicing clinicians and other stakeholders in the agricultural and medical community on the recognition and management of pesticide related health conditions. Department of Agriculture (USDA)

Small Business Innovation Research Program (SBIR)

The USDA SBIR program supports U.S. small business R&D projects that address important problems facing American agriculture and that have the potential to lead to significant public benefit if the research is successful. Areas of interest include, but are not limited to: biofuels and biobased products; forests and related resources; air, water, and soils; rural development; small and mid-size farms; and plant production and protection. Proposals are strongly encouraged to address areas including but not limited to climate change and sustainable bioenergy. $21.88 million is expected to be available and individual awards NTE $100K. Responses are due September 9. For more information, contact Scott Dockum at sbir@nifa.usda.gov or go to: http://www.nifa.usda.gov/funding/rfas/sbir_rfa.html.

Rural Cooperative Development

USDA requests proposals for the Rural Cooperative Development Grant Program. This program supports the establishment and operation of cooperative development centers for the primary purpose of improving the economic condition of rural areas. Areas of interest include but are not limited to: renewable energy generation, energy conservation, and/or climate change adaptation or mitigation as strategies for quality job creation; Innovative utilization of natural resources as a strategy to expand business opportunities; and local and regional food systems as a strategy for encouraging production agriculture and related industries in new wealth creation. $7.9 million expected to be available, up to 30 awards anticipated. Responses are due August 9. For more information, contact cpgrants@wdc.usda.gov or go to: <http://www.rurdev.usda.gov/rbs/coops/rcdg/rcdg.htm>.

Agriculture and Food Research Initiative - Foundational Programs

USDA requests proposals for the AFRI – Foundational Programs. The Foundational Programs support research, education, and extension as well integrated programs that address key problems of national, regional, and multi-state importance in sustaining all components of agriculture, including farm efficiency and profitability, ranching, renewable energy, forestry (both urban and agroforestry), aquaculture, rural communities and entrepreneurship, human nutrition, food safety, biotechnology, and conventional breeding. The RFP is posted at: http://www.nifa.usda.gov/funding/rfas/afri_rfa.html.

USDA Rural Development:

This grant focuses on landfill assistance as well as helping communities reduce the solid waste stream. For more information go to: <http://www.usda.gov/rus/water/SWMG.htm>

Other Available Grants

Sustainable Communities

The U.S. Department of Housing & Urban Development (HUD) requests proposals for the Sustainable Communities Regional Planning Grant Program. This program will support metropolitan and multijurisdictional planning efforts that integrate housing, land use, economic and workforce development, transportation, and infrastructure investments in a manner that empowers jurisdictions to consider the interdependent challenges of:

- 1) Economic competitiveness and revitalization;
- 2) Social equity, inclusion, and access to opportunity;
- 3) Energy use and climate change; and
- 4) Public health and environmental impacts.

$98 million is expected to be available and the award range is $100K to $5 million. Responses are due August 23. For more information, contact sustainablecommunities@hud.gov or go to: <http://www.grants.gov/search/search.do?mode=VIEW&opId=55456>.

Community Environmental Demonstration Projects - Alaska

The Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium and RurAL CAP request proposals for Community Environmental Demonstration Projects. This initiative will support innovative projects that address approaches for enhancing human health and the environment of Tribal communities in rural Alaska. Areas of interest for demonstration projects include, but are not limited to: climate change, indoor air quality, solid waste management, recycling, outreach materials, energy use, and pollution. $200K is expected to be available and up to 12 awards are anticipated. Responses are due September 9. For more information, contact Desirae Roehl at droehl@anthc.org or go to:

<http://www.anthc.org/chs/ces/hve/fy11solicitation.cfm>.

Environmental Scientist Award

The U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, National Institutes of Health, requests proposals for the Outstanding New Environmental Scientist Award. This RFP will support early stage investigators committed to research in problems related to environmental exposures. Examples of relevant toxicants include, but are not limited to: industrial chemicals or manufacturing byproducts, pesticides, air pollutants and other inhaled particulates. $3.6 million is expected to be available and up to 6 awards are anticipated. Letters of Intent are required and are due September 30 and final proposals are due October 29. For more info, contact Carol Shreffler at shreffl1@niehs.nih.gov or go to:
<http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/rfa-files/RFA-ES-10-004.html>

Regional Climate Science Centers

The U.S. Department of the Interior requests proposals for Regional Climate Science Centers. This RFP will support land, water, fish and wildlife, ocean, coastal, and cultural heritage resource managers with the tools and information to develop and execute strategies for successfully adapting to and mitigating the impacts of climate change. Individual awards NTE $7.5 million. For more information, contact Robin O'Malley at romalley@usgs.gov or go to:
<http://www.grants.gov/search/search.do?mode=VIEW&oppld=54299>.

Applications for Tribal Wildlife Grants (TWG)

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service requests grant proposals from federally recognized tribes for projects that will conserve fish and wildlife resources. The TWG program supports projects on a competitive basis that benefit habitat, fish and wildlife, including species that are not hunted or fished. This grant request is for FY 2011. Proposals and grant applications must be postmarked by September 1. The maximum award for any one project under this program is $200,000. For more information and to obtain a copy of the grant application kit, or to find a regional tribal grants contact, please visit <http://www.fws.gov/nativeamerican>. Additional information about this and other grant programs go to

The Department of the Treasury seeks comments from Indian Tribal Governments regarding the Tribal Economic Development Bond provision in Section 7871(f) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The purpose of this solicitation of comments is to assist Treasury in developing recommendations regarding this bond provision for a Congressionally-directed study under the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009. This solicitation of comments is in furtherance of the objectives of Executive Order 13175 under which Treasury consults with tribal officials in the development of Federal policies that have tribal implications, to reinforce the United States government-to-government relationships with Indian tribes, and to reduce the imposition of unfunded mandates upon Indian tribes. Additional comments from the general public related to this matter are also welcome. Comments on or before September 10, 2010. Click here for full background.

Request for Nominations of Members to Serve on the Bureau of Indian Education Advisory Board for Exceptional Education

There are eight positions available. The Bureau of Indian Education (BIE) will consider nominations received in response to this Request for Nominations, as well as other sources. The Supplementary Information section for this notice provides Advisory Board and membership criteria. Nominations must be received on or before August 18, 2010. Please submit nomination information to Sue Bement, Designated Federal Official (DFO), Bureau of Indian Education, Albuquerque Service Center, Division of Performance and Accountability, P.O. EPA Encourages States to Use Portal for Reporting Ecological Incidents:

EPA announces the availability of the Ecological Pesticide Incident Reporting Portal at www.npic.orst.edu/eco. Launched in October 2009, this online application was developed to facilitate the reporting of ecological incidents from States, Federal Government organizations, tribes, academia, wildlife rehabilitation centers, conservation societies, beekeepers and other organizations involved with the investigation and documentation of ecological incidents. Information related to ecological incidents submitted via the portal will be imported into a database for use by risk assessors and risk managers in EPA's Office of Pesticide Programs and considered the next time risks are assessed for the pesticide(s) involved in the incident report. More complete data on ecological incidents will allow the Agency to make better informed regulatory decisions, write better label statements, and impose better risk mitigation measures. Additionally, incident data serve as early warning information and can assist the Agency in discovering trends, which if left unnoticed, could create problems.

Free GIS Products -- National Geospatial Resource Center

The Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) and Federally Recognized Tribal Entities (FRTE) can obtain specific Environmental Systems Research Institute (ESRI) products through the National Geospatial Resource Center (NGRC) at no cost. The current Enterprise License Agreement (ELA) between ESRI and the Department of the Interior (DOI), USGS BPA No. G09PA00003, is valid through September 30, 2013. How to Report a Possible Violation of Environmental Law

If you have seen what appears to be a violation of environmental laws and regulations, visit <http://www.epa.gov/tips>. This Web page provides a tool to report possible environmental violations. Because different activities fall under different jurisdictions, the page gives examples of situations and who to call. The Web page also helps you tell the difference between environmental violations and emergencies.

EPA Seeks Information on Lead-Based Paint activities in Region IX Indian Country 1999-2010

In coordination with RTOC, EPA Region IX is gathering information on all lead-based paint activities conducted at Region IX tribes for the past 10+ years. EPA also seeks information from BIA, HUD and IHS. Information which EPA is seeking includes activities already completed, underway, or approved but not started. EPA specifically seeks the following information to prepare a "baseline inventory" of all lead-based paint activities conducted in Region IX Indian Country from 1999 to 2010: (1) outreach efforts on lead-based paint and lead's hazards; (2) childhood blood lead screening efforts; (3) evaluating lead-based paint conditions at tribal housing, child-occupied facilities or tribal buildings including dust sampling and soil sampling; and (4) remediating lead-based paint hazards at tribal housing, child-occupied facilities or tribal buildings including lead in soil remediation. EPA seeks information on all efforts (completed; underway; or approved) in Region IX Indian Country whether financed by grants/funding agreements with EPA, BIA, HUD, IHS or other federal departments; funded by tribal governments or tribally-owned entities; or funded by sources such as foundations or nonprofit groups. Please note that EPA is not seeking information related to any specific person's blood lead testing or lead hazard testing involving any specific person's individual housing. If you have information, regarding this baseline inventory for 1999-2010, please contact David Tomsovic, EPA Region IX Toxics Office, 415-972-3858 or email tomsovic.david@epa.gov.

EPA Releases First-Ever Baseline Study of U.S. Lakes

This draft study, which rated the condition of 56 percent of the lakes in the United States as good and the remainder as fair or poor, marked the first time EPA and its partners used a nationally consistent approach to survey the ecological and water quality of lakes. A total of 1,028 lakes were randomly sampled during 2007 by states, tribes and EPA. The survey included a comparison to a subset of lakes with wastewater impacts that were sampled in the 1970s. It finds that 75 percent show either improvements or no change in phosphorus levels. This suggests that the nation's investments in wastewater treatment and other pollution control activities are working despite population increases across the country. To view this study, go to: <http://www.epa.gov/lakessurvey>

Pesticide Endangered Species Bulletins for California:

In January 2010, the EPA Office of Pesticide Programs (OPP) completed DRAFT Endangered Species Bulletins for 40 California counties. The bulletins were developed for the protection of Salmon and Steelhead in the states of California, Oregon, Idaho, and Washington and describe Court-ordered use limitations for pesticide products containing chlorpyrifos, diazinon or malathion. Once pesticide products with generic-endangered species label statements are used, the use limitations will be enforceable. About 55 tribes in California may be affected if any one of these three active ingredients is used on their lands. Information is available on EPA's websites <http://www.epa.gov/espp/litstatus/wtc/maps.htm> and <http://www.epa.gov/espp/litstatus/wtc/qs-as.htm>. The Region 9 Pesticides Office will provide updates as available and will assist tribes in effected counties as needed. For more information, contact Allen Demorest at 415-947-4214 e-mail at demorest.allen@epa.gov.

Community Renewable Energy Project Guide Available

The Commission for Environmental Cooperation (CEC) has completed the Guide to Developing a Community Renewable Energy Project in North America. This guide is meant to assist community and indigenous communities groups in the development of their own small-scale renewable energy projects. The Guide covers Canada, Mexico and the United States. The Guide is available on the CEC Web site at: http://www.cec.org/files/pdf/ECONOMY/QA0608_Guide_Community_RE_en.pdf.

Treatment and removal of abandoned vehicles

EPA Region 9 has published a 15-page booklet on the treatment and removal of abandoned vehicles, with emphasis on the problem faced by tribal nations. Here is the URL

<http://www.epa.gov/region09/waste/tribal/resources.html>. In addition to the internet, paper copies are available by request to Michelle Baker at baker.michelle@epa.gov or 415-972-3206.

Targeted Brownfields Assessments (TBA)

A TBA is an environmental investigation designed to document environmental conditions at a property under consideration for redevelopment. EPA can provide communities and nonprofit organizations with environmental assessment services at brownfield properties with redevelopment potential. TBAs are noncompetitive and are available all year. To see the brochure, click on the following link:

www.epa.gov/region09/brownfields/pdf/Brochure-idea-final-05-07-07.pdf.

Polychlorinated Biphenyls (PCBs)

EPA has set up a hotline and a website to answer questions about this issue – concerned parties can call (888) 835-5372 or visit <http://www.epa.gov/pcbsincaulk/> for additional information.

National Congress for American Indians (NCAI) Opportunities

NCAI has posted a list of opportunities for Tribes resulting from the Recovery Act. There are also links to related news updates and webinars. See: <http://www.indiancountryworks.org/>.

National Pesticide Information Center (NPIC)

NPIC offers a toll-free number staffed by knowledgeable specialists seven days/week from 6:30 am to 4:30 pm PST. NPIC has real-time access to current, in depth information for a national audience. NPIC addresses questions in multiple languages such as Navajo, Cherokee, Ojibway and many more. For any question regarding pesticides, please call toll free 800-858-7378 or visit www.npic.orst.edu.

Interstate Technology and Regulatory Council (ITRC)

For more information, call Eugenia McNaughton, 415-972-3411 or Joe Eidelberg at 415-972-3809 or go to <http://www.itrcweb.org/membership.asp>

Rapid Deployment Energy Efficiency (RDEE) Toolkit Help Line

Call 866-602-7333 or email RDEE@icfi.com to receive a response to your inquiry within one business day. Or visit or post to your browser: www.epa.gov/cleanenergy/energy-resources/ee_toolkit.html. All questions related to funding provided by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act should be directed to DOE: www.eere.energy.gov/recovery or 1-877-337-3463.

Ensuring health and safety from potential asbestos hazards in schools (grades K-12).

Asbestos, a naturally-occurring mineral, is used in building materials due to its heat- and fire-resistant properties. For information on the asbestos-in-schools program go to: <http://www.epa.gov/asbestos/> or contact: Ron Tsuchiya, EPA Region IX Toxics Office, 415-947-4168, or email tsuchiya.ron@epa.gov

Procedures for Accessing EPA Resources for Emergency Responses to Hazards Materials Incidents on Tribal or Federal Lands in AZ

Call 9-1-1 first. Then notify the National Response Center at 1 800-424-8802. A tribe can also notify Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ) at 602-390-7894 or 602-771-2330. If it is a transportation-related spill, call 602-223-2212 at the Arizona Department of Public Safety. In addition, local jurisdictions need to be notified of the incident. If ADEQ is unable to respond to a hazardous materials incident on tribal and federal lands, contact the National Response Center at 800-424-8802, and ask for the EPA Region 9 Duty Officer. EPA has On-Scene Coordinators placed in San Francisco, and Los Angeles, CA, Carson City, NV and Phoenix, AZ who can provide timely response to a hazardous materials incident.

Web sites for tribal programs and federal programs

Tribal Energy and Environmental Information Clearing House (TEEIC)

This site <http://teeic.anl.gov> provides information about the environmental effects of energy development on tribal lands. The U.S. Department of the Interior is funding the development of the TEEIC through the Assistant Secretary of Indian Affairs' Office of Indian Energy and Economic Development. For more information visit the TEEIC Web site (<http://teeic.anl.gov>) or contact the TEEIC Webmaster at teeicwebmaster@anl.gov
